After payment to the bank, you may track the status of your payment either at any nearest tax office or our web portal at <http://ura.go.ug> using the Payment Registration Number (PRN) above. This Payment Registration Slip shall remain valid until 05/08/2016. After its expiry, you will not be able to use it for effecting your payment at the bank. You will be required to generate another payment slip. If this payment registration slip is lost or defected, you may obtain a copy from your email inbox, web portal account inbox or a reprint from our web portal using the PRN and Search code above.

Note :

- For any domestic tax payment, the payment will first be allocated to your oldest outstanding liability (of the tax head) in the order of Principal, Penalty and Interest, if any.
- If you make payment against a wrong tax head or TIN, you should immediately notify and request the commissioner in writing to transfer the amount to right tax head, subject to such conditions as the commissioner
